Big Tomato

JAMES M. MARTIN of Route 4, Appomattox holds tomato weighing two pounds, five ounces. Martin says he does not know what kind of seed he grew the plants from, but that they were produced on the worst soil in his garden.

Little Tomato

CALVIN ROBINSON, former publisher of the Times-Virginian, explains that he does not go in for growing big tomatoes, but that he has many the size of the one he displays here. Robinson neglected to weigh this specimen, so our readers will have to give their own estimate of its size.

Assembly To Meet Wed., Sept. 11

The Appomattox Assembly will hold its regular monthly meeting next Wed., Sept. 11, in the Agricultural classroom of the Appomattox Middle School. All representatives are urged to attend. The meeting will begin at 7:30.

Impressive services were held at the Galilee Baptist Church last Sunday morning. A very large crowd attended. The pastor delivered an inspiring message. The music was enjoyed by all. Several visitors were present.

The Mount Shiloh Baptist Church was the special guest of the Rising Sun Baptist Church last Sunday at their annual homecoming services. The pastor of Mount Shiloh was the guest speaker. Beautiful music was rendered by the Mount Shiloh Senior Choir. The service was well attended by members and friends. The pastor of Rising Sun is the Rev. John D. Scruggs. Revival service began on Monday evening with the Rev. Horace Spears as the guest speaker.

A large crowd attended the closing service of the Promise Land Annual revival last Friday evening. The revival was inspiring and helpful to all who attended. The Rev. S. C. Terry was the speaker thru the week. Two additions were added to the church. A large number of homecomers attended thru out the week.

The Mount Shiloh Baptist Church and pastor will be the special guest at the Fifth Street Baptist Church in Lynchburg this Sunday evening at 3:30. The senior choir will render music. Officers, members and friends of the church are asked to attend the service. The pastor will deliver the annual message to the Brotherhood club of the church.

The regular church meeting of the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church will be held this Saturday evening at 7 p.m. All officers and members are urged to attend.

All officers, members and friends are reminded of the special service planned at the Promise Land Baptist Church on the third Sunday evening in this month at 3 p.m. The Rev. Raymond Turner and his St. Mark Baptist Church of Amherst, Va. will be the special guest.

A large number of relatives were visiting here over the week end.

MRS. MELVIN ANTHONY REEVES
the former Miss Deborah Catherine Tweedy

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

Miss Deborah Catherine Tweedy and Melvin Anthony Reeves were married Saturday evening, August 31st at 6 o'clock in the Bible Baptist Church in Appomattox. The Rev. Earnie W. Lucas officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. John Allen Tweedy, Jr. of Appomattox. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Melvin Green Reeves of Red House.

A program of nuptial music was provided by Miss Donna Lynn Stanley. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional slipper length gown of silk organza with a scalloped neckline. The fitted empire bodice featured embroidered lace and full length organza sleeves. The detachable finger tip veil of imported illusion, bordered in scalloped peau d'auge lace.

She carried a prayer book showered with baby's breath and topped with a white orchid and streamers.

Mrs. William H. Martin, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a slipper length gown of pastel green polyester crepe. The empire bodice was accented with white daisies and a scooped ruffled neckline. She carried a green and white mum with green ribbon. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Raymond Allen Tweedy, sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Betty Diane Reeves, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Susan Karen Moore. They wore identical dresses in design as that of the matron of honor, in pastel yellow. They carried yellow mums with yellow ribbon. Each attendant wore a white hat with pastel ribbon and streamers.

Miss Tamara Lynn Martin and Miss Sherry Ann Wilcox, nieces of the bride were flower girls. They wore white slipper length dresses with a floral empire bodice. Master Joey Herbert Moore was ring bearer. He was attired in white with a yellow ruffle shirt.

Mr. John Thomas Hunter of Red House was best man. Ushers were Raymond Allen Tweedy and Thurman Lee Wilcox, Jr. brothers of the bride. Carlton Lacy Reeves and Thomas Walter Reeves brothers of the bridegroom.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall following the ceremony. Those assisting were Mrs. James Tweedy, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Albert Hight, aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. John Covington, aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Carlton Reeves, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Mrs. Aubrey Johnson and Mrs. Jimmy Pierce. Miss Nan Chambers was the guest registrar.

The bride is a 1974 graduate of Appomattox County High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Randolph Henry High School and attended Central Virginia Community College.

After a southern wedding trip the couple will reside at Red House, Virginia.

Lunch Honors Miss Tweedy

Mrs. James A. Beaty and her daughter, Mrs. Ray Allen Tweedy, entertained Saturday with a bridal luncheon at the home of Mrs. Beaty honoring Miss Deborah Catherine Tweedy whose marriage to Melvin Anthony Reeves took place Saturday at 6 p.m. at Bible Baptist Church.

Guest attending were Mrs. John A. Tweedy, Jr., mother of the bride, Mrs. Melvin G. Reeves, mother of the groom, Mrs. Thomas M. Richardson, director of the wedding, and the attendants.

Miss Tweedy presented each of her attendants with a gift.
